Gather as Franciscans have gathered for centuries
- to share our experience of living the Franciscan life, esp during past 3 years
- to assess what has worked well and what needs improvement
- to develop priorities for the next three years
- to elect those whom we wish to lead us in addressing these priorities
Sacred Time

Chapter is a time when the Holy Spirit will move among us and be experienced

A sacred time to be respected through prayer and fraternity

A time to recognize the giftedness of our community and of thanksgiving for those willing to serve
- those who have served during the past three years; and
- those who will accept to serve during the next three years

Chapter will mark another step on our journey together
Prayer for Guidance

Most High and Glorious God,
Bring light to the darkness of my heart.
Give me right faith,
certain hope
and perfect charity,
Most High and Glorious God.

Lord, give me insight
And wisdom
So that I might always discern
Your holy and true will.

(Pope John Paul II on the occasion of the 2002 SFO General Chapter)
Living our Secular Franciscan Vocation

Conclusion

And, so, as we gather as a National Chapter,
- we gather to share our experience of living the Franciscan life, especially during past 3 years,
- to assess what has worked well and what needs improvement,
- to develop priorities for the next three years, and
- to elect those whom we wish to lead us in addressing these priorities.

National priorities must reflect the priorities of the entire Order. Leaders should be chosen based on their skills to implement priorities.
